Teaching and learning methods

Communicative methodology embraces all four language skills through speaking, reading, writing and listening. Classes, based mainly on task-based learning methodology and collaborative work, include a range of interactive and different activities encouraging learners to use the language in an increasingly autonomous way.

Assessment methods

1. Continuous assessment - (Regular, Student Worker) (Final)

- Practical Work - 40% (mid-term tests and practical work done in class or at home)

- Intermediate Written Test - 60% (one exam focusing on the 4 skills, with different percentages)

2. Exam - (Regular, Student Worker) (Supplementary, Special)

- Final Written Exam - 100% (assessment on listening, writing, reading, speaking and English in use, with different percentages)
